

Congratulations to the Leadership Lexington Class of 2007-2008

W. Rogers Company understands that a successful company must invest in its employees. The company's innovative management practices and commitment to creating an effective workplace are proof that investing in employees is a valuable and successful business model—turnover is low, safety is a priority, employees are valued and business is thriving.

We truly believe that strong leaders help build strong communities and we salute Leadership Lexington for its dedication to build a stronger Lexington.

*Building Water Facilities
Building Relationships*